

GRATEFUL ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS TO THE REVIEWERS OF FINANCIAL THEORY AND PRACTICE, 1999-2007

Financial Theory and Practice has been coming out since 1977 (up to 2000 it was called simply Financial Practice) and publishes original and review articles from the domain of public sector economics, also accepting applied and theoretical research papers addressing a broader set of economic topics such as economic development and growth, the role of institutions, the transition to a market economy, and European integration.

During the years we have endeavoured to attract as many writers as possible, and at the same time to find the best domestic and foreign reviewers for given areas. All the articles submitted have undergone a double, anonymous peer-reviewing procedure. In fact this process is one of the main reasons for the National Council for Science of the Republic of Croatia, at a meeting held on January 24, 2007, having assessed Financial Theory and Practice as the best journal in the area of social sciences in Croatia.

In our gratitude to reviewers for their patient performance of a very responsible and frequently unrewarding task and for their efforts to extract the very best from authors' ideas and approaches to topics, in this number we are publishing a list of all the reviewers from 1999 to the end of 2007. We apologise to those from the period before 1999, who have not been placed on this list since we have not managed to find the necessary data for most of them. Reviewers in the 1997-2007 period were:
